ARMISTICE IN CHICAGO.

Colonel Bliss and Clarence Darrow Trying to Settle Strike.Chicago, Nov. 21.—A new step toward peace in the railway strike has been taken. An armistice has been declared by representatives of both sides pending its result.Attorney Clarence Darrow called upon Colonel E. R. Bliss, general counsel for the company. Mr. Darrow said he was empowered by the men to negotiate a settlement for them."Why can't you and I get together on this?" asked Mr. Darrow of Colonel Bliss."I don't know of any reason why we cannot," said Colonel Bliss."What basis would you suggest?" Mr. Darrow then asked."The only point that we absolutely cannot modify is the right of the company to hire and discharge its men," said Colonel Bliss emphatically.The attorneys then agreed upon a cessation of strike hostilities pending an attempt by them to settle the strike.
The company agrees not to hire any more men to take the places of the strikers, in return for which concession the union, through Mr. Darrow, agrees to cease active strike measures for the present time.

ARRESTED AS A SPY.

American Citizen Captured While Looking at Cherbourg Fort.Cherbourg, France, Nov. 21.—The military authorities here have caused the arrest of a man giving the name of Allen, said to be a naturalized American of French birth, on the charge of seeking to obtain information regarding the military defenses of Cherbourg.Allen had been under close surveillance, and it is claimed that he in-gled with privates belonging to artillery regiments and other soldiers, seeking to obtain details of the armament of the forts, and that he made the friendship of a gunner, who reported the facts to the military authorities.
The latter charged the gunner to secure evidence.It is claimed that Allen made two written requests for information concerning the national defenses. His arrest followed. Allen will be expelled from France.

FIRE IN BUTLER, PA.

Several Firemen Hurt by Falling Walls—Loss, $200,000.Butler, Pa., Nov. 21.—Fire broke out in the Park theater building about 5:30 o'clock, and by 9 o'clock property valued at $200,000 had been destroyed.
The falling walls buried a number of firemen under a mass of bricks and burning timber, and Chief Jacob Burckholder, Frank Ziegler, Charles Douglas and Albert Walters were seriously injured.The fire was evidently caused by an explosion of gas in the basement of the theater building. Among the other structures burned were the buildings occupied by the Central hotel, Butler Business college, National Supply company, Dr. John M. Leigener, the Butler County Record Printing company and William H. Ritter, grocer. The buildings were owned by Daniel Younkins, James Thompson and J. G. Smith.

Yukon Sun Office Blown Up.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 21.—A dispatch from Dawson says that the office of the Yukon Sun was wrecked by an explosion of gasoline in the basement.
Fire consumed the building and destroyed the plant; loss, $25,000. The men at work did not have time to get their coats and hats, but rushed outside with the temperature at 35 degrees below zero.Invest money at 100 per cent. Onions at 40 per pounds means $2.00 per bushel and at 80 per bushel is a little over 100 per pound or a difference of $1.25 per sume in the next six months? Sowden &

MYSTERIOUS FIRES.

A Shoreham Farmer A Victim of a Fire Bug.Middlebury, Nov. 20.—During the past five months there have been five fires on the farm occupied by Hiram Spaulding in Shoreham. His house, barns, stacks of hay and corn stalks, have been victims of an incendiary torch. Suspicion fastened on a boy, Joseph Roberts.The Roberts boy is an orphan, having been brought from Boston a few years ago.
The theory advanced is that the boy in his city home doubtless witnessed many fires, and may have become infatuated with the sight and the consequent excitement attending them, and has thus been led to gratify his desire by becoming a veritable fire bug, although there seems not to be circumstances sufficient to prove him culpable. At any rate, Mr. Spaulding felt justified in leaving the matter before state's attorney Donoway, with the result that a warrant was issued for the boy's arrest, and Sheriff Burdard arraigned him before Justice Dickens on Wednesday, and the case given a thorough examination. Lawyer L. H. Laffair appeared for the young man, and at the close of the evidence the justice concluded that the evidence did not sustain the charge, and the young man was discharged.

THEY WERE IN COLD STORAGE.

Two Men Were Shut Up Nearly All Night.Randolph, Nov. 21.—H. M. Gaylord of Brookfield, who has bought poultry here every fall for a number of years, had a very peculiar experience Thursday night.
Mr. Gaylord and an assistant were at work in the car packing and sorting turkeys at about 10 o'clock, when some one from the outside closed the car door and put the pin in. The two men finished their work and were ready to leave the car when they found themselves locked in safe and sound for the night. They pounded around inside of the car but were unable to arouse anybody until about 3 o'clock in the morning when the night operator at the station happened to hear the noise inside the car and after making an investigation released the prisoners, much to their satisfaction as the night was cold and they had been in the cold car for several hours without overcoats.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGED.

Anthony McNeely of Burlington Arrested Last Night.Burlington, Nov. 21.—Anthony Mc-Neely, a young man about 24 years old, was arrested last night by Sheriff Horton at the instance of the American Surety company, on a charge of the embezzlement of $1,000 from the Rutland Railroad Co.
Young McNeely has been employed by the company for six or seven years, and about 18 months ago was appointed cashier of the local freight office.Nothing wrong in the accounts was discovered until last June, when George M.
Rowell resigned as agent. Even then the shortage was small and the matter was allowed to rest. Since that time it is claimed there has been a continual drain.
Suspicion pointed to McNeely. September 20 last he severed his connection with the road and has since been about Burlington.

THEY WERE THIEVES.

And Two St. Albans Young Men Will Go to State's Prison.St. Albans, Nov. 21.—Henry Gokney, aged 20, of any old place, on the night of Nov. 8, robbed the office of Gilmore's, livery stable of a suit of clothes, shoes, gloves, two overcoats. Yesterday they were arraigned in the city court and each pleaded guilty to an information filed by State's Attorney Locklin, charging grand larceny. Judge Thorne sentenced each respondent to serve not less than two nor more than two and one-half years at hard labor in the state's prison at Windsor, where they will be taken this morning by Sheriff Kelley.

to smoke as he had seen others do with cigars. In lighting the matches his clothes took fire and he ran out doors. The girl saw him and caught him, but could only put the fire out by throwing a pail of water over him, but not until he was so severely burned that he died Tuesday.

game between Harvard and Yale was called er conditions were ideal.It was a grand and inspiring sight when the two elevenes trotted on the field a little before two o'clock. On all sides the great arena was brilliant with the gay colors of the women, the flowers and the flags of the partisans. But more interesting than all were the cheers, songs and parades.The line-up of the two teams was as

CASES ARGUED.

Claimed That Giving Away Is Not Furnishing.Montpelier, Nov. 21.—In Supreme Court yesterday afternoon, in addition to the rendering of decisions the following cases were argued: Octave B. Brunelle and wife vs. Eugene W. Carr and wife, by H.
C. Shurtleff for plaintiff, no one appearing for defendant; Leonard & Holden vs. A.
J. Sibley, adm'r., argued by John W. Gordon for plaintiff and H. C. Shurtleff for defendant; State vs. Patrick Tague, argued by Burton E. Bailey for the state and H. C. Shurtleff for the respondent.
In this last case the respondent was charged with furnishing liquor and the evidence showed the liquor was given away. It is claimed by the respondent that "giving away" is not "furnishing" under the statute. The prohibitory law included the words "gives away" along with "sells" and "furnishes" but the license law does not.

A BOSTON STREET CASE.

In Which Reference Is Made to Laying of Retardments.The Times is asked to print the following from the Boston Herald of Nov. 14:
"Judge Hammond heard in the supreme court yesterday a petition brought by Timothy McCarthy vs. the mayor and superintendent of streets of Boston for a writ of mandamus to compel the completion of the construction of Pontiac street, which had been ordered laid out by the street commissioners about four years ago.
The petitioner, whose property abuts, says the work has been unreasonably delayed.
He had a suit for damages against the city on account of changing the grade, and claimed damages at from $27,000 to $38-000, while the city had claimed that the change benefitted him. A jury awarded him $5,700.""The city's lawyer claims that the writ of mandamus should not be issued for practical reasons, first because the general appropriation of $6,000,000 for street laying out and construction has been exhausted, and has not been made replenishable by the laying of betterments, as the method of assessing betterments has been declared unconstitutional, thereby preventing the collection of a part of the cost from property owners, which might be used for further street work."

WAS NATIVE OF BARRE.

Edward Clark, Who Died at Brattleboro, Was Born Here.Edward Clark, 70, whose death at Brattleboro was reported yesterday, was born in Barre, September 10, 1833, being the son of Francis and Mary Dodge Clark.
He prepared for college at Oxford, N. H., and there, finally graduating from the university of Vermont in 1858. He married Ellen S. Bailey of Berlin the same year and removed to Illinois, where he taught vocal and instrumental music in Springfield and Jacksonville. Mr. Clark had a pleasant acquaintance with the late President Lincoln, and often referred to him in interesting reminiscences. Leaving Illinois, he returned to Montpelier, where he continued in his profession, going to West Brattleboro in 1882 to teach music in Glenwood seminary. It is a fact that Mr. Clark was the first to introduce music into the Brattleboro public schools. He was a member of the Barre Congregational church at the age of 17. He became a member of the Masconoco order in Barre and was afterward a charter member of Brattleboro lodge. He was a Knight Templar, being the organist of the commandery for several years.

HE ESCAPED AFTER ALL.

John Mitchell, Alias Harry Ingalls, Allowed to Go Free.Montpelier, Nov. 20.—After all the clever work of tracing Harry Ingalls, he was released by the Massachusetts officers before the chief of police could forward requisition papers for his return to Vermont.
In their talk with Chief McMahon, the Massachusetts officers said nothing about any limit to their power to hold the prisoner. Ingalls signified his willingness to come to Vermont without requisition so no papers were procured. When Officer Jones arrived at East Freetown he was informed by the officers there that, according to Massachusetts law, they could hold Ingalls but a few hours longer. Ingalls refused to come without a lawful regulation. The time was too short to procure the papers and Officer Durkee was obliged to return without his man.

A DRAWING CARD.

St. Monica's Fair Continues to Attract Big Crowds.St. Monica's fair is certainly a drawing card as the attendance has increased each night since its start and the enjoyable entertainments which are to follow will not fail to swell the pleasure seeking crowd still more.A very pleasing programme was carried out last evening, which consisted of several vocal selections and a very pretty little dance by Miss Beatrice Callaghan and Miss Slayton which was the most pleasing part of the entertainment.This evening's programme is as follows: Vocal solo, Wm. Strong; Woodman's drill by the Misses Gladys Gravelin and Francis Burke; violin solo, James Riley.

him. He is survived by a wife, one son, Peasley C., of this town, and a daughter in Iowa.

CITY COUNCIL INTERROGATED.

"Tax payer" Wants to Know About Some Things.To the editor, Barre Daily Times: As a taxpayer I would like to ask what honest Alderman Robins referred to when he stated that the city was responsible for their keeping. Also, by what authority no one is eligible to drive the horses of the fire department but one of the present firemen, so stated by the mayor. Why this position should not be open to any responsible man I fail to see. It looks to me as if "Little Tammany" was getting in his work.
